

National Organization of Italian American Women in collaboration with the Italian Cultural Institute

cordially invites you to attend

Tracing Your Italian Roots

A lecture by Bianca Ottone of Monday, November 13, 2006, 6:30-8:30pm

Italian Cultural Institute
686 Park Avenue
(Between 68th & 69th Streets)

Join us to learn how you can trace your family history, learn more about your heritage, and perhaps find long-lost relatives

My Italian Family, the leading family research company in Italy, is engaged in genealogical research projects for all people of Italian descent looking for information about their ancestors and living relatives.

Bianca Ottone can help you get started in Request for Records, Translations, Dual Citizenship, Surname Search, as well as other services

"Bianca, many many thanks for the information -- you have gotten more in less than a day than I have in years! I am amazed! Your services and information are incredible! You have no idea of the joy you have brought to my mother and me! Grazie!!" This is what Anita Palladino from New York had to say about My Italian Family. Come and hear how Bianca Ottone can help you in your family search.

Seats are limited. RSVP to 212-642-2003 or NOIAW@aol.com by November 8, 2006